

Adrianna Marie and her Roomful of All-Stars transport you to a posh club complete with smoky blues, driving riffs and gleaming jazz. Sophisticated, sultry, playful, and she knows how to put the jazz in blues and the blues in jazz. Adrianna Marie was born to sing this music, and in her sophomore release, “Kingdom of Swing,” producer Duke Robillard leads her dream team little big band — a veritable roomful of allstars, featuring Al Copley, L.A. Jones, Duke Robillard, Doug “Mr. Low” James, Rich Lataille, Mark Earley, Doug Woolverton, Carl Q, Junior Watson, Brian Fahey, Kedar Roy and Bob Corritore. It’s a gorgeous, romping, swinging and crafty album of originals and a few re-imagined covers that features Adrianna Marie singing every bit as sultry, sassy and smart as the vintage songstresses she adores so much.
